There are many veterans' organizations available to join and they all do an excellent job of serving the veteran. But for the Marines there is only one organization that carries on the traditions and principles of the "Corps" like no other. That organization is the Marine Corps League. The league is composed of Marines and former Marines with at least 90 days of honorable service. Our goal is to perpetuate the traditions, camaraderie and the spirit of the United States Marine Corps through the continuing association of all Marines who have ever served under the Eagle, Globe and Anchor at any time, in war or peace.

The Roan/Creek Detachment meets on the 1st Tuesday of each month at the VFW post # 1475 which is located at 1401 W 8th Ave. Please feel free to drop in and visit with us. The business meetings begin at 7:00 P.M. so plan on arriving early and enjoy the camaraderie.
